A first place you cannot touch yet

Leading an index is not leading your task

ARTIFICIAL ANALYSIS

59

Intelligence Index — rank #1

one point above Claude Opus 5.5

WHERE THE LEAD ENDS

- Coding Agent Index: 59 vs 62 for Opus
- Terminal-Bench 4.0: second, behind Kimi K3.1
- Humanity's Last Exam: 60.4% vs 61.4%
- the lead is one point, not across the board

WHAT IS GENUINELY GOOD

- cost per task $7.76 vs $10.04 for Opus
- 29% fewer output tokens per task
- noticeably less verbose in agent mode
- 1M token context window

WHAT IS MISSING

- no public API — security teams only
- price doubles after intro: $2/$10 to $4/$20
- almost no hands-on coding reviews yet
- Gemini CLI retired for Antigravity CLI

TAKEAWAY

Winning an index and winning your task are different races
